SUBJECT: Proposed [REDACTED] Draft for Administrative Agreement with the United States

1. Attached are three intelligence reports giving the proposed [REDACTED] draft for an administrative agreement with the United States. This draft has not been brought up for formal discussion with United States representatives, but it appears likely that at some future date it will be. We would appreciate your reviewing this document with specific reference to any areas in it which you feel would be detrimental to CIA interest or

2. Also attached is an initial draft of comments on this paper which were prepared by the [REDACTED]. On reviewing these comments it is our general feeling that in this draft we have strained too hard to interpret positions of the agreement as possibly detrimental to operations. Your comment, if any, on this point would also be appreciated.
